DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This action in is response to the amendment filed 21 February 2003 that amended claims 1, 4-7, and 120.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 21 February 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The 35 USC 112 rejection is overcome.
3. The scrambling key in Kurihara is used by the receiver and hence reads on "output". The examiner does not agree with applicant's assertion that "[o]nly if the scramble key is different from a data element, would it receive separate treatment in a claim." The examiner has seen claims in which features like applicant's data element are treated separately in a claim.
4. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., data elements being audio and video components; applicant's claims are broad enough that data elements could be different time sections of a program, the beginning middle, and end, for example) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

6. Claims 1, 3-7, 120, 121 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kurihara (6069956).

Element 21 of figure 2 anticipates the first part of the first clause of claim 1. Lines 63-64 of column 7 anticipate periodic scramble key updates. Lines 19-26 of column 16 anticipate scramble means.

With respect to claim 120, lines 28-29 of column 10 show an enciphered scramble key. The scramble key reads on a component. Element 16 anticipates claims 121 and 122. See figure 16 for claims 4-7. As taught in lines 14-22 of column 7, audio, video, and the like are multiplexed. "And the like" includes sub-audio. ECM data is also multiplexed, which reads on private data. This meets the limitations of claim 3.

Conclusion

7. This application contains claims 8-119 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No. 6. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
